DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The FMC is an independent regulatory agency tasked with the regulation of oceanborne transportation in the foreign commerce of the U.S., whose mission is to (1) develop and administer policies and regulations that foster a fair, efficient, and secure maritime transportation system; (2) protect U.S. maritime commerce from unfair foreign trade practices, and market-distorting activities; (3) facilitate compliance with U.S. shipping statutes through oversight and outreach; and (4) assist in resolving disputes. The FMC reviews operational and pricing agreements among ocean common carriers and among marine terminal operators (MTO) to ensure that they do not unreasonably increase transportation costs or decrease services. This position involves reviewing and analyzing the competitive impact of carrier and MTO agreements filed with the Commission, and researching, compiling, and analyzing trade data associated with the regulation of various segments of the international ocean shipping industry. The incumbent prepares written recommendations to the Commission and senior management and economic and statistical studies, summaries, or reports for use by senior management in decision-making processes. As necessary, the incumbent prepares testimony and/or pertinent exhibits for use in formal proceedings before the Commission; participates in technical conferences or other meetings and contacts various officials of the international ocean shipping industry to discuss agreement issues and regulatory policies. Incumbent performs work individually or as a team member, and handles multiple projects/assignments concurrently. To develop expertise in different functional areas, the incumbent will participate in a variety of rotational, cross-training assignments within the Office/Bureau.

DUTY STATION: Washington, DC

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: All applicants are required to meet the qualification requirements listed in the OPM Operating Manual for Qualification Standards for General Schedule Positions (which is available for review in any Federal Personnel Office or online at www.opm.gov). Those requirements are summarized below:

GS-9: Applicants must possess 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-7 level OR have successfully completed all requirements for a master's or equivalent degree OR two full academic years of graduate education in fields related to the work of the position.
